According to the book of Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, who refused to serve the gods set up by Nebuchadnezzar, "were bound in their coats... and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. ... Then Nebuchadnezzar... rose up in haste... and said... Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?... Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God. ... Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire... and the king's counsellors... saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, ... nor the smell of fire had passed on them." In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy says, "The understanding of his spiritual individuality makes man more real, more formidable in truth, and enables him to conquer sin, disease, and death."
